BOYS will be boys... most of the time.

Meet Britain's first all-boy cheerleading squad — the Peewee Boyz, from Leeds, West Yorkshire.

The boy dancers will be taking on the girls at this weekend's International Cheer Championship in Coventry.

Many of the members enjoy more traditional male sports such as football and rugby — but say cheerleading gives them a worthwhile workout.

The dance troupe is putting the final touches to their special routine for the three-day international competition which starts today.
